

COOKIES' POLICY

Young Devon uses cookies across its websites which include, but isn't limited to:

- www.youngdevon.org
- www.marketstreet.org.uk
- www.stayingsafe.info
- www.mindthatmatter.org
- www.meaningfulminds.org

By using these sites, you consent to the use of cookies.

This Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third-parties we may partner with may use cookies on the Service, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text sent to your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Service or a third-party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the site more useful to you. We use cookies for the following purposes: to enable certain functions of the site, to provide analytics.

Third-party cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we also use third-parties cookies to report usage statistics of the Service and to signpost to our social media sites (Facebook and Twitter)

What are your choices regarding cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser. Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly.

However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser or taking a look at the About Cookies website which offers guidance for all modern browsers.
